

Declarations For Our Children

- I decree and declare that you will be the head and not the tail. By faith, you will righteously lead your generation.
- I decree and declare that you will be wise beyond your years. You are smart. You are intelligent. You are fearfully and wonderfully made. You are a master of critical thinking, and you have all the skills you need to fulfill your purpose.
- You will lead many to Christ.
- You will learn easily and succeed in all you do in school, at work, and in all your endeavors.
- You are not delayed, you do not have autism, you do not have any development disorders. God has perfectly developed your brain for greatness.
- I decree and declare that you will maintain a consistent prayer life. You will independently maintain a relationship with God.
- You will live a life of obedience, answering the call God has placed on your life.
- The spirit of rebellion shall not consume or overtake you. By faith in Christ Jesus, you are no longer a slave to sin.
- Fear will never consume or deter you.
- God is not the author of confusion; therefore, you shall not struggle with confusion or ignorance.
- The jezebel spirit will neither sway nor affect you in any way.
- You are and will be the perfect picture of health.
- I decree and declare that healing will flow through your hands.
- By faith, you are filled with the Holy Spirit, and you will allow the Holy Spirit to discern.
- Your thoughts will be subject to the Holy Spirit. You will open your mouth and the Holy Spirit will fill it.
- You will operate in all 9 gifts of the Spirit.
- You will operate in supernatural faith. Your faith will be so strong that it'll make really strong measures of faith look like unbelief.
- You will be a source of inspiration to your generation and to many living before and after you.
- You will know your authority in Christ.
- You will recognize and hearken to your Father's voice.
- You will experience supernatural growth.
- You will walk towards your God predestined purpose, and you will stay on course.
- No attacks of the enemy against you shall prosper.
- You will speak to any mountain and it will move. By faith, it'll get out of your way.
- Demons will tremble at your voice.
- I decree and declare that you will live righteously.
- You will teach the Gospel from a young age.
- By faith, I impart to you the baptism of the Holy Spirit.

Declarations For Homeschoolers

- We decree and declare that homeschoolers and homeschooled students are receiving strength from the Holy Spirit now.
- Parents will have the patience, strength, and temperament for this assignment.
- Families will not get frustrated and fall apart.
- Parents will discover each child's learning methods and fittingly teach lesson plans accordingly.
- Parents will proceed in teaching under the leading of the Holy Spirit with wisdom from God, and Jesus Christ shall be at the center of their homeschool.
- Homeschooling shall not add any additional strain on the household, students, or the parents.
- Homeschooling parents will have enough income to tithe & sow, support their household, save, and fun activities.
- We decree and declare that each parent will be equipped with the knowledge necessary to perform the task of homeschooling.
- Parents homeschooling multiple children will not grow weary and give up, nor will they struggle to meet each individual child's needs.
- Homeschooled students will learn with the help of the Holy Spirit.
- They will learn the Bible, independence, domestic skills, financial skills, critical thinking, and more practical subjects.
- Parents will have a support system that aids them in appropriately schooling their children, and single parents will have access to lots of support and resources. Children who are the only child in their household will have outside experiences, connections and encounters with other children who share our Christian beliefs.
- Parents will create or find suitable and affordable curriculum for their families.

Declarations For Our Educators

- I decree and declare that our educators will be prepared and equipped to teach children from different walks of life.
- Our educators will have the wisdom and knowledge needed to address and correct struggle areas within our children's academics.
- Our educators will have the patience necessary as well as all fruits of the Spirit to teach the children in a way that fits each of their needs.
- You will be led by the Holy Spirit to cater to each child's unique needs.
- By faith, the Holy Spirit will relieve our educators of frustration, and no frustration shall alter their dedication or capacity for the work ahead.
- We decree and declare that our children's educators will have fresh oil, fresh anointing, and embody the heart of Jesus.
- I decree and declare that our educators will have effective relationships with us, the parents, and we will work together to build up each of our children and train them up in the way that they should go.
- We decree and declare that a hedge of protection is covering them now and always as they lead and guide the next generation.
- We decree and declare that our educators will have a genuine heart towards and for our children.
- We declare that the floodgates of Heaven are opening above our educators now, flooding them with provision, wisdom, strength, energy, and innovation.
- Our educators will remain healthy of sound mind and body to solidly and sensibly perform the task of educating our children
- We decree and declare that our educators are healed from any and all traumas, whether from teaching or from their personal lives, and their past shall not negatively affect their teaching or the students who learn under them.
- By faith, children will be safe in their care. Educators will maintain a safe and healthy environment for students to comfortably be themselves in learning.
- Teachers will be students first, open to learning and always seeking knowledge and wisdom
- They will be God-fearing and will not conform to the world. They will courageously be bold in proclaiming and sharing the Gospel.
- Their teaching will be effective. The school system will not dictate their ability to publicly pray or proclaim the name of Jesus.

Declarations For The School System/District

- We decree and declare that the school system will value the importance of the role the teachers play in shaping the minds of the children.
- We decree and declare that the school system will change their standards to realow students and teachers to publicly pray and freely speak the name of Jesus.
- The school system will allow themselves to be held accountable for any shortcomings, believing that any and all students are teachable in their own way.
- I decree and declare that the school system will welcome a variety of teachings methods to fit the individual learning needs of students.
- The school system will partner with and accept input from members of the community in the areas they serve.
- The Holy Spirit will be active in each school system of which our students inhabit
- Districts will seek God for wisdom and guidance for academics, security, abuse & bully prevention, administration, and staffing.
- We decree and declare that school systems will provide a safe environment for the educators to comfortably teach.
- The school system will not shortchange schools, educators or students based on prejudice or racial beliefs by not providing the same measure of resources and support to schools with a higher attendance of lower-income students.<sup>1</sup>
- We decree and declare that the school system will focus more on the quality of academics and school conditions over funding and politics.
- The school system will appoint leading staff, superintendents, and members of the school board who genuinely have a heart for the community.
- Districts will implement more classes that teach practical duties and responsibilities, financial education, and problem solving skills.
- We decree and declare that school districts will stop denying the power of Jesus and stop discouraging or trying to sway young believers from God. Biblical teaching courses will be implemented from early on, not just in private or faith-based schools, but also in public schools.

Declarations For School Safety

- We decree and declare that our students are safe from drugs or the influence of drugs on campus. Our children will not fall into peer pressure nor the snares of the enemy.
- We decree and declare that bullying will be addressed promptly and appropriately without anyone facing any physical, mental, social, or emotional harm.
- No child will bring guns or weapons to school. There shall be no bomb threats or violence in our schools.
- We decree and declare that all school officers and employees in charge of security are well equipped, wise, and subject to the leading of the Holy Spirit.
- We decree and declare that every educator will be screened and proven to be fit to safely teach every student without the threat of violence or elicit behavior.
- There will be no pedophiles, abusers, or devil-worshippers teaching our children.
- Bus drivers will be well equipped for handling problematic situations, and they will pay attention to the road at all times safely getting all children to their destinations. There shall be no bus accidents.
- We decree and declare that all students will not only have a safe environment in school, but they will also return home each day to a safe environment.
- Students will have access to clean drinking water and healthy food choices at school and at home.
- Educators will love others as they love themselves and treat all students and parents with respect, fairness, and gentleness.
- Educators and students will keep their hands to themselves.
- The spirit of perversion shall not move or dwell in our schools.
- All school staff will exercise appropriate temperament and character.

Declarations For Schools In Lower-Income Neighborhoods

- We decree and declare that these schools shall have access to unlimited resources. Their budget will increase, and God's provision will provide for the purchase of proper equipment, appropriate quality books in good condition, suitable salaries, and safe environments in lower-income schools.
- We decree and declare that students in low-income areas will have the same chance at a good education as any other school in higher-income districts.
- These schools will have the budget to hire genuine teachers with the ability to teach each child in a way that fits their needs.
- We decree and declare that the school system(s) will provide helpful resources for low-income students battling poverty, hunger, abuse, and homelessness.
- Lower-income schools will be able to offer valuable extra-curricular activities, stem programs, and field trips.
- Schools will partner with job creating organizations to reduce the rates of unemployment.
- The rising attendance of charter and private schools will not affect or strip public school funding.