

Casting Out Unwelcome Spirits

- In the Name of Jesus we rebuke every evil and unclean spirit and we cast it out now.
- We decree and declare that anything in here not originating in God or His plan be gone now in the Name of Jesus.
- I am the righteous of God and the light of Christ; therefore, everything of the darkness shall tremble around me and flee.
- In the Name of Jesus we cast out every stronghold, every ounce of fear, and every ounce of doubt.
- We decree and declare that darkness must flee, poverty must flee, sickness must flee, depression must flee, oppression must flee, and all things not originating in God or His plan must flee now in the Name of Jesus.
- We decree and declare that no wickedness and no evil or unwelcome spirits shall enter our dwelling.
- All demons and demonic spirits shall tremble under the sound of our voices.
- There shall be no more lack, no sorrow, no pain. There shall only be life and life more abundantly!
- We decree and declare that our home is blessed, and anyone welcomed into our home shall be blessed and healed too.
- We decree and declare that the light of Christ shall shine everywhere we go and in every place we enter.
- We decree and declare that any unfavorable circumstances not originating from God or in His plan shall shrivel and disappear.
- We bind all things not in God's plan and we cast them out into the dry places.
- In the Name of Jesus we command our eyes to see what God wants them to see, our ears to hear what God wants them to see, and our mouths to speak what God wants them to speak. We even decree and declare that our noses will smell what God wants us to smell.
- We decree and declare that we will use the wisdom, knowledge, and discernment that God has given us appropriately, and we will know when something is not right in the atmosphere.
- If there are any actions we have taken to allow an avenue for an evil spirit to get in, we repent and we renounce that action now in the Name of Jesus.
- We decree and declare that all avenues for evil be closed now in the name of Jesus.
- *(Open front door)* We open this door and we command anything not of God to get out now in the Name of Jesus.

Blessings Over Our Dwellings

- We decree and declare that this home is blessed.
- Anyone entering this home shall be blessed.
- Anyone entering this home shall feel the presence of God and His love in the Name of Jesus.
- We welcome God into this house, and Lord we ask that you shield and protect everyone in it.
- We decree and declare that blessings and favor are in our dwelling.
- In the Name of Jesus unexpected blessings and earnings shall come in the mail.
- All utilities and housing services shall remain active and paid in full each month.
- Mortgages, rent, insurance, home warranty, taxes, HOAs, and any other housing fees or expenses are paid in full and in surplus now in the Name of Jesus.
- There shall be no break-ins, famines, criminal activity, or any other unfavorable circumstances in, near, or surrounding my dwelling.
- Ebola, monkey pox, corona virus, flu(s), germs, and any other viruses, illnesses, or diseases shall die on contact and not penetrate, affect, or harm me in any way.
- May God's presence, goodness, grace, and love be found in overflow in this place.
- In the name of Jesus, we are safe from physical and spiritual harm and danger, and no evil will ever enter here.
- May this house be filled with our praise and worship unto God.
- We decree and declare that God's glory, will, and purpose for this home shall be manifested.
- In the name of Jesus our hearts, minds, and home shall reflect God's holiness.
- This home shall be filled with righteous living.
- In the name of Jesus, the members of this household will not anxiously labor hard day and night to make a living or sacrifice valuable prayer and family time to make a living.
- We decree and declare that all members of this household shall receive the rest that God has freely given them and act accordingly.
- All appliances, machinery, and wiring shall remain in proper working order.
- We decree and declare that there shall be no water damage, no electrical damage or issues, and no structural or internal damage.
- In the name of Jesus, all unwelcome creatures, insects, pests, including but not limited to snakes, termites, maggots, and slugs, bacteria growths, mold and rodents will remain outside and not enter this dwelling.
- If there are any unwelcome creatures, pests, rodents, asbestos, lead, poison, or any other harmful or unwelcome things in the home currently, we bind them now and we cast them out. They shall not dwell or grow here any longer. Be gone in the Name of Jesus.

- All smoke and carbon monoxide detectors are in functioning order and shall never malfunction. If they need batteries, we will remember to replace the batteries at the appropriate times in the name of Jesus.
- There shall be no fires or hazardous events that take place in or near our home.
- All refrigerators, freezers, pantries, and spice cabinets will remain stocked and filled with enough food to eat and share in the Name of Jesus.
- We decree and declare that there shall be no lack, poverty, or discomfort here or anywhere else that we go.