

Declarations For Protecting Us Against False Doctrine & Beliefs

- We decree and declare that nothing will separate you from the love of God.
- In the name of Jesus, your faith shall be increased, and your relationship with God will flourish beyond what you could ever imagine.
- We decree and declare that no human, man or woman, can cause you to look at God differently, doubt, or lose your faith.
- We decree and declare that any of our circumstances, any challenges, or negative experiences will always make us stronger and strengthen our faith. By faith, they will never cause us to backslide or turn away from God.
- We decree and declare that you shall continuously experience the love of God in your hearts and consistently dwell in God's presence.
- In the name of Jesus we rebuke any thoughts, feelings, philosophies, or beliefs not aligning with the word of God, and we cast them out now into the dry places.
- We decree and declare that we will not fall for any of the enemy's tricks, schemes, or evil plans.
- In the name of Jesus we speak God's will over our lives, and we declare an as in Heaven so on earth attitude.
- We decree and declare that our circumstances and lives fully reflect what God desires for us, and we live in the perfect will of God.
- By faith, we shall fulfill the purpose God has assigned to our lives and walk in the calling He has ordained us for.
- We rebuke any doubt, lies from the enemy, unbelief, faithlessness, or any other negative thought and emotion and command them to leave us now in the name of Jesus!
- We decree and declare that we shall not be deterred by our emotions, weaknesses, or struggles, but we shall consistently be reminded of the many blessings God has given us and the many promises God has made to us.
- We decree and declare that our hearts will not grow cold, and we shall make it to the end and be saved.
- In the name of Jesus we declare that we want to spend eternity in Heaven as a co-heir with Jesus Christ after this life on earth.
- By faith, we will not be fooled or confused by the teachings, rules, and laws of man. Instead, we receive wisdom and discernment from God, and the Holy Spirit shall remind us of the Truth and warn us when we are being or at risk of being misled or receiving false teachings.
- We decree and declare that we are led by the Holy Spirit and led by the Holy Spirit only.
- We decree and declare that the word of God is the knowledge we seek and not any man-made social constructs that create or cause confusion or sinful thoughts or behaviors.
- We decree and declare that our faith is stronger than our doubt, and doubt will never hinder, delay, or destroy us or the fulfilling of our God-assigned purpose.
- We decree and declare that we will recognize and respect long-suffering as one of the fruits of the Spirit, and impatience will not be a factor or overcome us.
- We decree and declare that the Holy Spirit will keep us throughout any difficulty experienced on this journey and all journeys in God's will.
- We decree and declare that the body of Christ will seek wisdom from God when needing or desiring clarity.

- We decree and declare that our spiritual leaders will not turn away those desiring spiritual growth or understanding who have questions that challenge the basis of our belief.
- By faith, we believe God's word as the Truth, and we will NEVER believe any false narratives created by the world or demonic influences regarding our way of life or belief in the word of God.
- In the name of Jesus, our circumstances will never alter our walk negatively, in fact, it will strengthen it.
- We decree and declare that the body of Christ, as a whole, will grow in Christ daily.
- We decree and declare that the strength of our faith will inspire others to turn around who have previously failed to accept Christ.
- In the name of Jesus, for all things on this declaration list, we have faith, we believe it, we receive it, and it is so. In Jesus' name, amen!
