

Declarations

- We rebuke the Jezebel spirit now in the name of Jesus. This spirit shall not dwell in you, your surroundings, your loved ones, or your circle of influence.
- In the name of Jesus, we will not adapt to the culture, behaviors, or ungodliness of society or the world around us.
- We decree and declare that God has given us our own mind, thoughts, and will, and we will use them to bring Him glory and not to fulfill our selfish wants.
- We decree and declare that we will practice and utilize the wisdom, judgement, and the sound mind that God has given us and not be followers or puppets of the world or the ruler of darkness.
- We decree and declare that we will not be influenced by the world's attempts to deter our focus away from God's perfect will.
- We will submit ONLY to the will of God.
- We decree and declare that, each day, we will devote ourselves to actively practicing righteous living.
- We decree and declare that our validation comes from God and not from man or any worldly entities.

- We decree and declare that we will set our minds on things above and not on earthly things.
- We decree and declare that we will not fall for the tricks of the enemy or be caught in any of his snares.
- We rebuke all false authorities on earth. We bind them now and cast them into the dry places in the name of Jesus.
- In the name of Jesus, we are not transformed by this world; however, Christ has renewed our minds and filled us with the Holy Spirit.
- In the name of Jesus, we have discernment from God, and we know how to use it.
- We decree and declare that the atmosphere changes and the Spirit of God is felt when we walk into a room or approach others.
- We declare and declare that we are the righteousness of God.
- In the name of Jesus, there is nothing we love or desire more over God.
- By faith, we will not be caught up in idolatry, covetousness, jealousy, clout-chasing, or reassurance from man.

- We decree and declare that we do not follow trends or customs. Instead, we follow the word of God and His teachings, and we walk in the behavioral standards set before us by Christ.

- We have faith, we believe it, we receive it, and it is so. In Jesus' name, Amen!
